

Pressure Control Equipment

Parker Wellbore offers effective and safe Pressure Control Equipment that meets or exceeds industry standards.

Effective well pressure control is essential for the safety and success of your operation, that's why you need a BOP pressure control equipment provider you can trust. At Parker Wellbore, all of our pressure control equipment meets or exceeds industry standard inspection and refurbishment specifications, including API, NACE MR-01-75, third-party DVR and COCs with full OEM certification.

We believe that pressure control equipment saves lives and we go the extra mile to provide you with the best quality equipment every time.

PCE Services

- Blow out Preventers Annual / Ram 4 1/6" to 30"
- Diverter Packages
- Choke Manifolds
- Control Units
- Drilling and Diverter Spools, Risers and Adaptors
- Frac Heads
- OEM spares and assemblies with expert technical advice
- Facilities available for onshore rig ups pressure testing and equipment refurbishments
- Personnel for onshore and offshore field applications

Product Offerings

Our pressure control packages are created to meet your operational needs. We can help you minimize operational downtime by pre-assembling and testing the BOP equipment in our dedicated pressure control workshops. Our global footprint enables us to ship to you, wherever you are, and provide onsite installation if needed.

Energy. Well engineered.

Find out more at parkerwellbore.com

©2021 Parker Wellbore. All Rights Reserved.

